RE: Johnson to receive award

Than Johnson, CEO of Champaign Residential Services, Inc., has been selected to receive the “Richard N. Adams, Ph.D. Educational Service Award”, according to Stephanie Franz, Deputy Director of the Ohio Association of Community Colleges (OACC). The award honors individuals who have demonstrated an active commitment to and participation in community college trustee education. Johnson has been a member of the Clark State Community College Board of Trustees since 1991.

The Educational Service Award is named in honor of Richard N. Adams, Ph.D., a current trustee of Edison Community College and former chairperson of the OACC Board of Trustees.

The award will be presented at the Columbus State Community College, Center for Workforce Development on October 19.
